3. Directors Report (L. Cohn/B. DelliCarpini)

A) Open Meeting Law

The Directors reviewed the New York State Open Meeting Law which all Teacher Centers are required to follow. Some of the items that were discussed were that Nassau TRACT will post all minutes on our website, along with the dates and location for all upcoming policy board meetings. This was discussed and has been our past practice and we will continue to adhere to these guidelines.

B) FS10A

Les and Barbara brought members up to date with the status of the grant. Dawn Graham, the Teacher Center Program Office Director emailed and called to notify us that the FS10A"1" was approved. At that time she requested a new Matrix be submitted with details on the new expenditures. Everything was submitted in a timely manner and we have not heard anything else, assuming it was accepted. (The matrix was disseminated to all members)

C) Professional Development Webinars

The following two workshops/ webinars will be presented by Jeffrey Benson., the 90 minute webinars will help us to understand the ways to weave SEL into our lessons, to build student competencies, and improve academic performance. Motion: To approve Jeffrey Benson at a cost of $1,000 each for a total of $2,000 for two 90 minute webinars all inclusive. (H. Kreit/E. Cormack) Unanimous - Carried.
